

Kellogg Salada Canada, Inc.
Canadian Salada™ Tea Promotion (1984)

Kellogg Salada Canada, Inc. began a “mail-in” offer for six miniature houses from the Whimsey-on-Why series from September to December 1984.

Pump Cottage (Whimsey-on-Why set one, #1)	Tobacconist’s Shop (Whimsey-on-Why set one, #4)	Greengrocer’s Shop (Whimsey-on-Why set two, #9)
Antique Shop (Whimsey-on-Why set two, #10)	Post Office (Whimsey-on-Why set two, #12)	Whimsey Station (Whimsey-on-Why set three, #18)

A tea caddy based on the tea caddy from the Wade “Village Stores” canister set was also available. The original decal over the door was replaced with a decal that had the word “Salada” in the center with “Salon de Thé” on the left and “Ye Olde Tearoom” on the right as required by the Canadian government.
